CHS STUDENTS TO ATTEND SAFETY CONVENTION IN PIERRE, NOVEMBER 9 AND 10

by Jeanne Hoekstra

On November 9 and 10, Mr. Wagner and Mr. Droppers will accompany thirteen or fourteen of Corsica High School's students to Pierre to attend the South Dakota Teenage Traffic Safety Conference. Marcia Vandén Hoek, Lois Groen, Jeanne Hoekstra, Russ Metzger, and Darrell Vanden Hoek, seniors; Faye Menning, Lonnie Van Zee, Donnie Oakland, Doug Brink and Sam Reimnitz, juniors; and 3 or 4 sophomores, who have not as yet been chosen, will be the CHS Safety Council members who will be going to Pierre.

This year the council will be entering safety booklets on the projects they have accomplished throughout the year. Also they will run Lonnie Van Zee for president and Don Oakland for East River vice president of the State Safety Council.

It Is Not The End!

Now that the football season is over, it does not mean that it is the end of everything. It isn't the end of anything. In fact it is just a beginning to another part of the school year in the event of sports.

As we look back, we see that nine weeks of the school year is past. The only section of events which is over for another year is football. Maybe we didn't do the hottest in the winning area, but it does not mean that we "buckled under" to our opponents.

As we look to the future, we see an even wider extent of sports left, such as basketball, track, wrestling, and golf. We can excel in these events if we only put enough effort into it. We may loose some of the times, but that does not mean to give up and throw in the towel.

As everybody knows, the boys can't do it on their own. They must have someone behind them cheering them on. By this, I mean the pep club. The pep club is needed for encouragement and the proof that somebody cares. Some of the turnouts may not have been too good, but that does not mean that the pep club doesn't care.

As a final word, I say let's go out and fight for what is rightfully ours, and let's go out and SUPPORT our team! PVDH

Principal's Comments

by Mr. Hall

We are on the 9th week of school already and $\frac{1}{4}$ of the school year is completed. For the senior class this means that you do not have a great amount of time before you will be on your own and choosing what to do to further your education or just go to work. For the rest of the student body, this means you should be thinking what you would like to do for your life's work so you can be better prepared for doing it.

My family and I have been in Corsica for just 9 weeks and so far we like the people and the community very much. They have been very friendly and receptive. The student body has accepted my children very well and they feel the students are very warm and friendly. As for my job as principal, I like it very much and enjoy it. I feel that we have a fine student body and that they are very cooperative to the requests and demands that are asked of them by me and the faculty. I would like to comment them on their fine cooperation with me and the faculty. Keep up the good work. Thank you!

The longest recorded "live burial" is one of 45 days and 3 hours by C. Whitman at Leesville, S. Car. from June 2 to July 16, 1967. The "coffin" measured 48" x 46" x 8".

Class News

Freshmen Comment

by Pam Engelland

The first nine weeks are about to end. The Freshman Class is cramming for their tests.

This month also brings to a close the football season. Eleven freshmen went out for football this year.

Sophomores Report

by Bev Everson

In the past few weeks the sophomore class has been busy. Not so much with extra-curricular events as school work. Last minute tries to raise grades a point or convince the teachers another test is unnecessary. As the quarter comes to a close all sophomore students are taking English, biology, typing and drivers' education. For the fifth class they have a choice between world history and geometry.

On Thursday, Oct. 26, the drivers education class will also help the Safety Council wash car and truck windows at the Sale Barn, in hopes that it will help prevent accidents.

The paper staff wishes to congratulate Lois Groen on being selected as the 1972-1973 DAR candidate.

Juniors Keep You Informed

by Nancy Star

October has been a busy month for the junior class. Studying for tests, taking part in activities, and working on class projects keeps the members of the class very busy.

The representative from Jostons met with the junior class October 5. The representative showed the class many styles and colors from which to choose. Two similar styles, cushion con't. col. 3

Seniors Keep Busy

by Renee Bye

The seniors have been rather busy the past few weeks getting all the little odd jobs finished. Taking senior pictures is one of those little odd jobs. Quite a few took them during SDEA and others have had them taken on Saturdays but the ones who haven't better hurry! They must be taken by November 1 or the finished photos can't be returned before Christmas! Now's the time to take them!

The concession stand at home football games has been a project of the junior class. The members of the class have taken turns working at the games and cleaning up on the following Monday.

Prom has been a topic of discussion for the juniors. The date has been set and plans will soon be made for a band and theme.

Christmas candles have been ordered for the class to sell. They will be sold to help raise funds for the prom and other class activities.

They attended a two-day Banker's Association Seminar in Mitchell. They said it was very interesting.

On October 19, all the seniors piled in a bus and left at 8:45 a.m. for Springfield. There they toured the college facilities and also ate dinner in the cafeteria. At 1:00 in the afternoon the seniors from Corsica and surrounding schools attended Career Days at Tyndall High School.

October 21 was also a rather important day for college-bound seniors as some of the class went to Mitchell and began their all-important ACT tests at 8:00 that morning. There are later testing dates for ACT tests so if you haven't taken them yet, be sure to register soon!

F. N. C. Trip To Mitchell

by Bev Mulder

On October 17, the Future Nurses Club left for Mitchell at 8:45 a.m. to tour different areas that deal with the field of nursing.

The attending students started the day by having lunch in the cafeteria at Vo-Tech. Then Mr. Ziegler, the assistant director, led a tour through the school. The students went through mechanics, lab, and secretarial sections. They also saw the culinary arts department--cooking and baking.

The next stop was at the St. Joseph's Nursing School. Sister Dominiak showed the group most of the class-

After dinner the tour continued at the Abbot House. Mrs. Justra showed the group the bedrooms of the children and other rooms where the word is done. The staff, legal, and financial arrangements at the home were also discussed by the groups and the girls.

After the Abbot House, the tour continued at Methodist Hospital. Mrs. Barnhart, a registered nurse led the group to the dif-

"She Fainted Again" To Be Presented Soon

by Mary Van Roekel

"She Fainted Again" is a play about one of the most hectic stages in a girl's life--when she finds herself too old to do what she used to and too young to do what she wants to. This problem is staring Betty Lou Maxwell square in the face. Older sister Connie goes with fellows left and right, and little brother Wilbur is running his legs off. Bernadine, Betty Lou's best friend, comes up with the idea to stop all this. If Betty Lou could get kidnapped, she could have everything her own way, so they stage a kidnapping, ransom note and all.

Mama and papa Maxwell are frantic. They call Mrs. Brown and Aunt Mary, Mrs. Maxwell's mother and sister, and everyone is frantic. But in time they find out that the whole kidnapping was made up. In the meantime Betty Lou really is kidnapped by two would-be robbers.

The second floor was mainly patient's rooms and the nursery. The first floor was for physical therapy, mental health, and medical records. The basement held the emergency power room, the dining hall, the pharmacy and the conference room.

When Bernadine tells them she really was kidnapped no one believes her. Even Wilbur is kidnapped and everything is thrown into a turmoil.

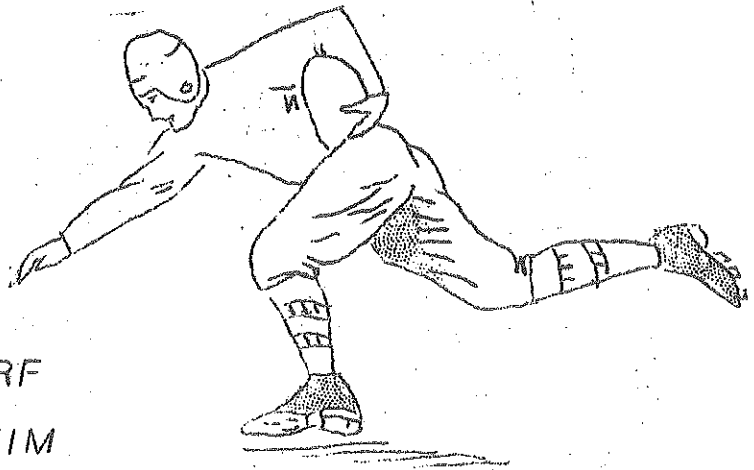

"She Fainted Again" will be given on November 16 and 17 under the direction of Miss Hoerth.

The cast for the play is as follows:

Comets End Season With 5-3 Conference Record

Corsica ended its season on a winning note as they crushed Marty, 64-6. The Comets raced to a 42-0 halftime lead and were never threatened throughout the game.

Kent Fisher led the Comet offense with runs of 18 and 50 yards, and hauled in 25 and 10-yard passes from Albert Heber. There were three four-yard plunges, two by Jerry Dykstra and one by Duane Vanden Hoek. Tom Eggers scored on a 70-yard kickoff return and took the ball for two yards into the end zone. Jerry and Arend Kuiper were cited on defense.

COMETS SCAMPER PAST ARMOUR

One of Corsica's biggest wins of the season was a 34-22 thumping of their arch rivals, Armour. Not only was it a showdown between the two rivals, but it knocked the Packers out of the title contention. The two teams were held to a scoreless first quarter, but Corsica slipped into a 16-14 halftime lead. The Comets blew the game wide open in the third quarter with two touchdowns for a 28-14 lead with Corsica twenty-four points ahead. Armour scored to end the game at 34-22, Comets. Three players had a hand in the scoring for Corsica, whose offense rolled up 487 yards. Kent Fisher scampers on two 65-yard carries, Russ Metzger went in from the six and ten, and Darrell Vanden Hoek recovered a Packer fumble in the end zone to round out the scoring.

Comets Stomp on Tripp 'Cats

The Comets had an easy 40-0 thumping over Tripp. The game was never in doubt as Corsica led all the way. Tom Eggers ran for touchdowns of 12, 68, and 10 yards. Kent Fisher dashed 58 yards for a TD, and Jerry Dykstra and Dale Weerheim scored on runs of six and twelve yards respectively. Jerry and Arend Kuyper led the Comets shutout defense.

Underdogs Rise To A Victory

Most everyone agrees that in baseball, the World Series is one of the most exciting things to happen all season. People who are baseball fans, and people who aren't, enjoy watching the series.

This year the two teams to compete for the title were the Oakland A's and the Cincinnati Red's. Oakland was supposedly the underdogs in the series, but surprised everyone by winning the title. All through the games, Oakland was performing really great baseball feats.

CHS Pays Tribute

Everyone was very sorry to hear the news of Jackie Robinson's death after this World Series. Jackie was the first black man to play professional baseball. He was really one of the greatest players in baseball history. He went through a lot to be able to play baseball. He loved the game and was really dedicated to it. Everyone will surely mourn his passing.

Said the FBI man to the bank teller after the bank was robbed for the third time:

"Did you notice anything special about the robber?"

"Yes; he seemed to be dressed better each time."

Gene Tenace, of the Oakland A's, hit four home runs to tie the World Series record with four other players. Included in these players is the all-time great, Babe Ruth.

This year the series met with a little difficulty. The fourth game scheduled was rained out. It had rained in Oakland for a week which made baseball playing impossible. The baseball commissioner called the game off, much to the sell-out crowds' disappointment.

WRESTLING PLANS BEING MADE

by Mr. Tom Bass

Twenty-three wrestlers showed up for our first wrestling meeting. We are looking forward to a winning season, all the wrestlers have a good attitude and are raring to go. We should be very strong in lightweights, but will be without a heavyweight this year.

ACT Tests Given

by Dorothy Spaans
Saturday, October 21, was a rough day for some of the seniors of CHS and many of the surrounding schools. The seniors arose extra early so they could get to the Mitchell Senior High School by 8:00 to take their ACT tests.

The day began with the assigning of students to a certain room. The test started around 8:15 and was completed at 12:10, with only one ten-minute break at 10:30.

This test is of great importance. It is required by most colleges before acceptance is considered.

The test requires great intelligence, which the students who took them no longer feel they possess. Ask anyone who has taken the ACT test and they will agree on one thing--the test was HARD!

Seniors Attend Career Days

by Bev Mulder

On October 19, the senior class and Mr. Billars, guidance counselor, left for a tour of U.S.D.S. and Career Days at Tyndall.

The bus arrived at 10:00 in Springfield. The students started out by having lunch in the cafeteria. A general session was held explaining the courses offered. Mr. Gullickson, Admissions Director, introduced three members of the faculty, Dr. Black, activities; Dr. Kreiner, general cont. col. 2

CHS Expresses Itself Through A 'Pipsissewa'

by Nanci Scholten and Lonnie Van Zee

Several students of the high school were asked what their definition of a 'pipsissewa' was. These are the replies that some of them gave:

Russ Metzger--It sounds like Pepsi-Cola.

Frent Uilenberg--Something you smoke.

Rhonda Plooster--It's a Kevin Van Genderen.

Mr. Eitemiller-- Tuesday morning in chorus.

Darnell Vanden Hoek-- It's probably some of Mr. Krietlow's relation.

Margia Ickenberg--I haven't the slightest idea.

cont. from col. 1 studies; and Dr. Stone, Technical Studies. The assistant directors gave a tour of the area and explained specific programs. At 12:00 the class met at the cafeteria for dinner.

At 12:40 the senior class was on their way to Tyndall, where the annual career days were held. In the auditorium, many high school seniors from the area met. Two administrators talked about financial aid and planning for college. The large group then split up. The individual students chose three meetings to attend out of a possible twenty, each with an advisor or administrator from a different college. Information was given on cost, courses offered and questions that the students had.

The purpose of the day was to help the seniors make plans for after they graduate.

Pam Engelland--A mushroom.

Dick Bordewyke--A dog.

Dwight Beukelman--I wouldn't want to say 'cause its too obscene.

Londa Bosma--Ruth DeVries walking on a pipe.

Terry Hall--A kind of dress.

Doug Brink -- A bird that lives in northern Siberia.

Renae Eyo--It sounds like some kind of seaweed.

Shirley Rus--Something I hope John V. V. doesn't have.

Tom Plooster--A dirty word, a very dirty word.

For those who are interested, a pipsissewa is a small plant used to make medicine.

ALL-STATE PREPARATIONS BEGIN

by Jeanne Hoekstra

On November 3 and 4, Mr. Fred Eitemiller will escort this year's All-State Chorus members to Huron: Jeanne Hoekstra, Soprano; Ginger Schrank, alto; Kevin Van Genderen, tenor; and Doug Brink, bass, were selected as this year's chorus members. Eight songs will be sung by the chorus. They are: Song of Galilee, Let Not Your Song End, Then Round About the Starry Throne, I Won't Kiss Katy, Rest, Glory to God in the Highest, Tenebrae Factae Sunt, and I Have a Dream, which will be sung with the orchestra. On October 17, Mr. Eitemiller and the All-Staters traveled to Tyndall and on the 24th they went to Mitchell for area practices.

Local Declam Contest Only A Beginning

by Londa Gruenewald
The Corsica local Declam Contest was held on October 24. The dramatic division began at 4:00. The oratory, humorous, and poetry began at 7:00.

Those trying out were as follows: Dramatic: Doris Niewenhuis, Ruth De Vries, Lonnie Van Zee, Pan Engeland, Lois Groen, Bev Zwart, Londa Gruenewald, Evelyn Van Dyke, Carol Hubers, Helen Van Dyke, Debbie Arlt, Fay Menning and Randy Dockendorf. Humorous: Linda Van Genderen, Debbie Bartelt, Janice Brink, Marsha Vanden Hoek, Doug Dappen, Renee Tecklenberg, Gloria Spaans, Nancy Scholten, Barb Droppers, and Karla Beukelman. Poetry: Lindi Gruenewald, Mary Van Roekel, Dorothy Spaans, Marcia Ligtenberg, Connie Rexwinkel, and Jeni Van Dyke.

There were three judges from Springfield who gave ratings and criticisms to the speakers. It was then announced that the first place winners were Lonnie Van Zee in dramatic, Faye Menning in oratory, Janice Brink in humorous, and Mary Van Roekel in poetry.

The second place winners were Londa Gruenewald in dramatic, Randy Dockendorf in oratory, Nancy Scholten in humorous, and Lindi Gruenewald in poetry.

Those receiving third place were Bev Zwart in dramatic, Linda Van Genderen in humorous, and Marcia Ligtenberg in poetry.

These people will now go on to different contests to give their declam selections.

'Sands of Time' Begin Again

by Bev Zwart

On October 11, the CHS Swing Choir, now called, "Sands of Time", performed in public for the first time this school year. They sang at a Democratic banquet at the Corsica Legion Hall. The songs, There's a Kind of Hush and Midnight Cowboy were sung as an after-dinner treat and were well accepted on a job well done.

They performed again on Sunday night, October 22, at the Grace Reformed Church Request Program in Corsica singing, A Child of Hope.

"Sands of Time" gave another engagement on October 29 when they will sing at Wagner at Eastern Star Friendship Night in the Masonic Temple. The songs they will sing are: Midnight Cowboy, There's a Kind of Hush, I Don't Know How to Love Him, A Child of Hope, and Cherish. The girls of the group will sing, As Long as He Needs Me.

Freshmen Are Tested

by Mr. Billars

In order to meet one of the statewide requirements of the South Dakota State Testing Program and the Department of Public Instruction, the Lorge-Thorn-dike Test was given on Oct. 18 to all the freshmen at Corsica High School by Mr. Billars, guidance counse-lor.

Each test consists of two parts--the Verbal and Non-verbal. Generally, the Verbal section deals with words expressing ideas, and their relationship to other ideas. It indicates the power of each student to "rea-son out" or "reason through" certain problems or ideas presented to him verbally. The Non-verbal section con-tains three subtests involv-ing pictorial classifica-tion, pictorial analogy, and number relationship. This section yields an estimate of the scholastic aptitude not directly dependent upon ability of the student to read, but deals with the relationship of pictures, graphs, and numbers. Thus, the combined use of both the Verbal and Non-verbal Bat-teries gives much data re-garding the abilities of each student, and enables the teachers to set better realistic standards for each student.

Grades are averaged out. Are you doing well or do you need im-provement? As students, we should try and make the next nine weeks another great one.

Outside public life, the record is 37,500 hands in 7 hours 15 minutes 18 seconds by George Borkowski, in London on February 22, 1967.

Veterans Honored

by Gloria Spaans

How do you celebrate Veterans' Day? What is it good for?

These questions may sometimes be placed somewhere in the back of your mind. It really is very simple cont. col. 2

if you think about it.

We all know that Veterans' Day is a legal holiday. It was previously celebrated on November 11 but now changed to October 22 in order to have at least one holiday in each month.

How do you celebrate? People do not work and there is no school so some people visit friends or just stay home and rest. In some places they celebrate by having parades and speeches.

What is it good for? Veterans' Day is commemorated for the bravery and patriotism which men and women have acquired by serving in the United States armed services. Other countries still celebrate Armistice Day (the original name) on November 11 because World War I ended on that day in 1918.

Band Presents Concert

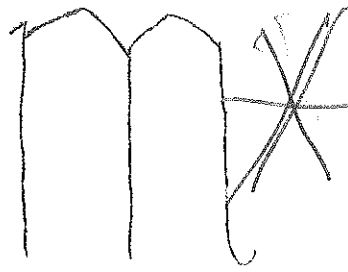

by Connie Rexwinkle

The Corsica concert band will present a concert on Oct. 30 at 8:00 in the gym. The band will be playing Sounds of the Carpenters, selections from Jesus Christ Superstar, Stranger on the Shore, Highlights from Chicago, and The Masterpiece.

Along with the usual playing, the band will be doing something different. They will be accompanying Bev Zwart on the piano playing the Theme from the Apartment.

Another unusual thing will be taking place. The Delmont vocal group will accompany CHS band with their high school chorus.

Happy Birthday Scorpios

What Would You Do?

by Pam Engelland

When asked this question: "What would you do if this person jumped out at you on Halloween night?" The persons name: ~~NORMAN ROBER~~

Answers:

Carol Buck: I'd stick out my tongue and walk away!

Carol Hubers: I'd stick Clara Belle on him!

Rhonda Plooster: I'd stop and talk to him!

Linda VanGenderen: Stand there and ask him his name.

Debbie Arlt: I'd scream and beat him up!

Mick Schrank: I'd jump at him, back and tip a grinder on his head!

Randy Olawsky: Take him to All-Star Wrestling!

Brian Stredde: I'd howl at him.

Keith Weerheim: I'd let him have it!

Debbie Eggers: Probably scream and run the other way!

Terry Hall: I'd pull a switch blade on him and scare him.

FOUR CHS STUDENTS ATTEND DISTRICT DECLAM CONTEST

by Joyce Keith

The District 15 Declam Contest was held in Platte October 26. Those attending the contest from Corsica were Faye Menning with an oration entitled "Scrates Defense," Mary Van Roekel with a poetry selection "Lady Lazarus"; Lonnie Van Zee presented a dramatic selection from "Anne of a Thousand Days"; and Janice Brink humored the audience with a cutting from "The Waltz of the Toreadors." It was a most interesting day!!!!??
