Comets improve record to 8-3 with win over White Lake

The Comets won another game to increase their record to 8-3 as they crushed White Lake 70-19 in the Plankinton Doubleheader.

CHS captured the lead from the very beginning with their fast break style of basketball and led throughout the game.

Corsica took in 44 rebounds while White Lake grabbed 35. CHS was led in rebounds by Lorisa Bamberg with 11 and Tami Bamberg with nine. The Comets shot 47% from the field putting in 31 out of 67. Corsica was led in points by Deb DeGeest and Lisa Peters with 14 apiece followed by Tami Bamberg and Lorisa Bamberg with 12 and 10, respectively.

The Comets will travel to Armour Thursday and Saturday for the Armour Invitational. First round games will be Corsica vs. Ethan at 7:00 and Dakota Christian vs. Armour at 8:30.

Journalists attend convention

High school journalists from throughout the state had a chance to gain experience at the High School Press Convention, which was held on the campus of SDSU in Brookings on October 8.

Those attending from Corsica were Kris Bordewyk, Denise Wahlert, Wendy Bosma, Pat Dockendorf, Scott Jendersee, and advisor, Scott Muckey.

The convention began with a morning session of workshops and classes ran by the SDSU personnel.

The afternoon session consisted of an awards presentation, in which Corsica won second place in the Class C Division for the First Edition Contest.

Also, Kris Bordewyk picked up the honor of being selected All-State Journalist.

Final game this week

Gridders lose to Armour

Corsica started out with a tough defense, recovering two fumbles and holding the No. 1 ranked Armour Packers to just six points in the first period. However, the second quarter turned out to be bad news as Armour rolled up 22 points with the Comet defense weakening.

The next half the Comet defense again toughened up to hold Armour to just 16 points. Even though the Comets had some scoring opportunities they never could get it in the end zone.

Brad Vanden Hoek led Corsica with 131 yards on 23 totes. Tim Fey followed with 64 yards on 11 carries, and Kurt Noteboom had 34 yards on nine carries. Corsica had 227 yards rushing and 269 total yards.

Corsica's leading defender was Travis De Lange with eight tackles and a fumble recovery, Kurt Bye 7, Brad Vanden Hoek 6, Tim Fey and Kurt Noteboom 5, and Troy Bosma had four tackles and a fumble recovery. Rob Ralston also had a fumble recovery.

Corsica returned six kickoffs. Kurt Noteboom returned four for an average of 14.3 yard per carry, and Brad Vanden Hoek had two returns with an average of 11 yards per carry.

Corsica had seven first downs; two passing, four rushing, and one penalty. Corsica had five penalties for 45 yards.

The next game for the Comets is the final game of the 1984 season when Corsica travels to Kimball on October 19.

Band and chorus to perform

Students in the vocal and instrumental departments at CHS are striving for perfection in preparation of the Fall Concert.

The concert has been set for October 25 at 8:00 in the Corsica High School gym.

The public is invited to hear performances by the Concert Band, Stage Band, Mixed Chorus, Boys and Girls Chorus.

A free will offering will be taken by the Corsica Music Boosters.
