EDITORIALS

SCHOOL SPIRIT--IN SCHOOL

by Jill Teeselink

Well, here's another editorial, and I suppose most of you are wondering what's going to be socked to you this time. Will it be not reading enough, not having good manners, not taking school seriously enough, or reprimanding a certain student who insists upon trying to blow up the lab?? Well these subjects have been covered quite well, so school spirit will be my topic. I know just what you're thinking after reading that last statement, but don't get me wrong. I don't mean standing on the sidelines of a football game or sitting on the bleachers at a basketball game yelling for the team. This matter is entirely up to the individual. What I do mean is spirit right here in school every day. It seems it would make school life a lot more interesting if everyone took an active part in the activities offered, and much more pleasant if everyone would smile and say, "Good morning" to each other as if they really meant it. Even if you are in a bad mood, you'll feel a lot better and make everyone feel better, too, if you keep a smile on your face. Remember, the teachers have to stick it out all day here too, so they deserve a friendly "Good morning" too, I'd say.

Just keep smiling and make people wonder what you've been up to. If you smile widely enough at the editor, maybe you won't have to write an editorial!

13 freshmen.

Mr. Wagner stated that practice is coming along fine and we should have a very good "A" and "B" team this year.

GOOD LUCK TEAM!!!!

Respect is sometimes elusive for those people who ask for it but are unwilling to return it. It is a two way street which must have both lanes open. If you have respect for those around you and the achievements they have made, you will nearly always have in return the respect of those people for you and your achievements.

INTELLIGENCE IS INHERITED--WISDOM SELDOM IS!!!

RESPECT: A TWO WAY STREET

by Mr. Henthorne

In a world which changes faster than history can record, the two most bantered concepts are integrity and respect. These two characteristics of man seem to mean different things to different people. I would like to see a complete pause, by we citizens of a free society, for the purpose of re-evaluating our idea of respect.

On our society criminals have won many rounds with the courts concerning their rights. We are told by decision after decision that the criminals' rights must be respected. May I suggest that anyone who shows no respect for others deserves none himself.

In our schools today the young student is becoming a better educated person than at any time in past history. With this education the student demands to be heard. His demands claim respect for his ideas, but again we must ask how valid is this claim for one who demands respect must also respect those who provided the education facilities and those who administer their use. If he fails to recognize the respect which must be returned to society, then he will also give up his claim for respect.

Congratulations, Sandy, -excellent-District Declam!!

GRADE NEWS

1st

Mrs. Krull

We have been busy in activities relating to the month of November.

In Arithmetic we have been studying time and money. In our study of time we make clocks and calendars.

In language class we have been telling stories. We have also been giving telling and asking sentences and finding some in our books.

We like to work in our reading work books. We will soon be ready for a hard back book.

Julie, Danny, and Wayne had birthdays and gave us treats.

David, Julie, Debra Z. and Debra Dappen shared books with us.

We had a nice time at our Halloween party. Thank you, Mothers, for the delicious lunch.

adelphia, Pennsylvania, directed the chorus. We sang "Weep O Mine Eyes", by John Bennet, "Weep O Mine Eyes", by Halsey Stevens, "Cantata Domino", by Anerio, "Sing to the Lord A New Song", by Track, and "Salvation is Created", by Tschisnokoff. Next the orchestra under Mr. Gerhard

Schroth from Racine, Wisconsin, performed. They did "Toccata and Fugue", by Frescobaldi, "Song of Peace", by Ingall, "Soirdes Musicals: Suite No. 1", by Rossini, Britten, and "Second Symphony Finale," by Tchaikowsky. The orchestra consisted of 145 members from 13 schools.

The chorus and orchestra combined and presented the final number on the program. It was "Song of Democracy". The music was by Howard Hanson and the words by Walt Whitman. Mr. Schroth conducted it.

Tired and happy, we arrived back in Corsica about 1:00 Sunday Morning after two days of hard work.

7&8th

Mr. Kulhavy

7th and 8th grades had a Halloween party Oct. 31. A number of games were played and after this a lunch of pizza, hot dogs, potato chips, and cup cakes was served. Apparently a good time was had by all.

9 weeks tests have been given, corrected, and the sad news is out. Looks like more time will have to be spent with the books.

Everything considered the school year up to this point has gone well.

5th & 6th

Mrs. Schroeder

October 31 we had our Halloween party. It started at 2:00 and ended at 3:30. First we showed the rooms our costumes. Then we started to play games. Our game committee was Laura Vanden Hoek, Carol Buck, Diane VanZee, Rhonda Plooster, Randy Oliver, Kent Dockendorf, Craig Wagner, Doug Dappen, and Larry Spaans.

Friday both grades had an arithmetic test. We have music on Monday and Friday. After music the boys go to Phys. Ed. On Wednesday the girls have Phys Ed.

Mike Eggers went to Rapid City. His mother and father brought Pap some rocks. They were very interesting. One of our students broke his finger.

Nov. 5, 1968, we voted for president. Nixon won from our room with 25 votes. Republicans won in all contests except for the one which was won by McGovern.

3rd & 4th

Miss Hofer

In science the 3rd grade is studying fossils. We have a nice collection of them. Teresa Eggers brought several from Custer last week.

In science 4th grade is studying about aquariums and terrariums. We have fish and enjoy them a lot. It is interesting to watch them lice in the water.

We have two deer buck tails brought by Michael, also a cottontail skin. Michael and Elaine brought a skin of a pheasant.

Alfred Hup, from rural Clark School, came to our room last week.

We enjoy our health charts and are working hard to fill them out each day.

Larry Plooster passed out treats last week on his birthday.

SENIOR INTERVIEWS

Allen Hoekman

On February 11, 1951, Allen Hoekman was born to Mr. and Mrs. Stan Hoekman.

Since he is now a senior we take it for granted that he has favorites and he does. He likes English and Mrs. Hughes, playing piano, reading, and "Those Were the Days". Like everyone else he has a pet peeve and his is two-faced people.

Allen has been active in band and chorus and is an A student. He plans to attend college and go on to be a medical missionary.

His opinion of CHS is that it's a great school but could do with some improvements.

Shari Star

On October 30th, 1951, a new addition was made to the William Star family. They chose to name this little one Sharon Kaye. Topping her height of 5'6" are her blue eyes and blonde hair.

Shari is now a student at CHS, where she names Mr. Englehorn as her favorite teacher. She says about CHS, "I love it, but especially the senior class."

Shari is one the the senior cheerleaders. She says she likes all sorts of people but especially one with a sense of humor.

One thing she doesn't like is a sarcastic teacher.

When Shari isn't in school you could find her just running around with the gang.

After she finishes high school, Shari would like to attend Northern State or Sioux Falls College.

Mary Zomer

Mary was born in Parkston on November 23, 1951, to Mr. and Mrs. Herman J. Zomer. She weighed 7 lbs. at birth and has green eyes.

Her favorite food is pizza, and drink, Dr. Pepper. Among other favorites of Mary's are actor, Sidney Poiter, movie, "Yours, Mine, and Ours", Song, "You are my Special Angel".

Her per peeve is people who are two-faced.

Mary's favorite subject is Typing II and Mr. Billars is her favorite teacher.

Her future plans are as yet undecided. Her opinion of CHS is that it's great, but could have some improvements. Mary's view of the teachers is, "They have a lot of enthusiasm to get things going".

During her years at CHS she has been a student council member, carnival candidate (freshman year), chorus member and pep club member.
