CHS Student Wins $150 Scholarship

by Bev Everson

Corsica's own Renee Tecklenburg has brought herself fame once again. Renee has long been known for her writing ability, and you might remember her revision of the 'Three Little Pigs' last year for declam. Renee entered this story in a state-wide contest at Northern State College and took first place. This entitles her to a $150 scholarship if she attends Northern.

Renee entered several of her original poems along with her short story in January. The results of this contest arrived this past week.

KENT FISHER CHOSEN FOR AWARD

by Bev Everson

Kent Fisher has been honored by being selected to have his autobiography published in the 1974-75 volume of High School All-Americans. This award is given to those who have distinguished themselves in the areas of athletic performance, sportsmanship and extra-curricular activities. This honor is only awarded to less than 1% of high school athletes.

CHS Presents Spring Play

by Randy Dockendorf

A favorite of years past returns to the Corsica High gym when the CHS Drama Club presents "Cheaper by the Dozen" for its spring play on April 10 and 11. The production is a real-life three act comedy that will be directed by Miss Wagner and Steve Beukelman.

The play centers around the Gilbreth family in the 1920's. Mr. Gilbreth is an efficiency expert in a factory and brings his tactics home to his family. His methods range from teaching the babies typing to playing foreign language records in the bathroom, including the proper procedure for taking a bath. Unfortunately, the girls feel love in the air and want to break from his rigid rules. The whole house is in an uproar when Joe Scales and Larry drop by for dates, and Miss Brill (the old battleax teacher) schedules final tests in the middle of it all. While trying to keep his family in order, Mr. Gilbreth must never let the children know a secret he has learned. The warmth, humor, and tragedy of this close family makes it a play you will enjoy and want to see again and again.

Girl and Boy State Chosen

by Bev Everson

Debby Groseth and Steve Bamberg have been selected as the students to represent CHS at Girl and Boys' State. Alternates for the two are Bonnie De Boer and Randy Olawsky.

Debby is active in FMC, music, paper staff, and drama. She is also treasurer of the student council.

Bonnie's extra-curricular activities include paper staff, music, and FMC. She is student director of the band.

Steve is a participant in drama, music, and paper staff. Randy his alternate, is active in sports, music, drama, annual staff, paper staff, safety council, and is student body president.

Both Girl and Boys' State will be held June 1 through 7. Girls' State will be on the Dakota Wesleyan Campus, while Boys' State will be held on the Northern State College Campus.

The purpose of the week is to teach the students about our government through participation.

Strikes Again!

Well, we're at the end of another quarter of the school year. This is the time when a lot of the kids are really getting bored with school work. Everyone's probably has "spring fever". I guess they're all thinking about what they could be doing, or how much fun they could be having the general feeling is anxious waiting for May 16 and vacation.

This is the time of year when a little spirit is needed the most. Also needed is a lot of trying to get along with other people. Short tempers are usually more numerous than at the beginning of the year. It might help if kids would try a little harder to understand and get along with teachers and vice versa. It's hard to concentrate on studying so that will also take a little extra effort. If all else fails to help you survive, just remember there's only nine weeks left of school and hope that the time will go fast. B.D.

There Is No Room For Immaturity

by Eve Van Dyke

Immaturity can be bad. An immature person cannot accept responsibility and reality. If he isn't fully mature at the proper age, he won't be able to take things like a mature person can. But being and acting immature when you really are normal are two different things. Hitting and shoving in school shows great immaturity.

Showing great immaturity is quite prevalent in our school. Too many students hit each other for dumb reasons. Some guys hit each other just to be funny. Sure, the other guys laugh, but where is that going to get you if you hurt someone? Hitting and shoving proves that people can't act their age but must shove, hit, smart off, and throw things around all the time.

Lots of kids are old enough and know better than to hit and shove, but they ignore their common sense and do it any way. Some people never grow up. They stay immature all their lives. If a person is like that, some of these things can be excused. If an immature person gets worked up he is liable to holler, scream, and throw a tantrum. People know he is like that so they cool him off and overlook it. If they see a normal kid doing that they might wonder what's wrong or what he is trying to prove.

CLASS NEWS

Seniors Plan Graduation Ceremonies

by Eve Van Dyke

During this month we decided our class motto, colors, and flowers for graduation. The motto chosen is: "What we learn today will help us lead tomorrow." Our flower is the rose and our colors are light blue and silver. The minister we picked for our graduation ceremonies is Rev. William Verhoef.

The skip days we planned for May 2nd and 3rd we changed to the 8th and 9th.

Ruth DeVries was chosen to participate in the National Guard Ball at Parkston on May 18.

Juniors Hustle

by Renae Tecklenburg

Lots of junior guys and girls have been hustling in order to get in shape for the up-coming track season. Also some have been involved in evening play practices, swing choir and stage band rehearsals, and other extra-curricular activities. Besides homework, the junior class is making prom plans.

Freshmen Progress

by Paulette Vanden Hoek

The third nine weeks is now over and the students are relieved to have their nine weeks tests over with. The students who were chosen for the play are very busy with practices.

The conclusion of the school year is near and we will no longer be freshman.

Sophomores Participate in Activities

by Teresa Maunders

With nine-weeks tests over and book reports handed in, the sophomores are taking a break.

Several of the sophomores have been selected for parts in the upcoming play. Quite a few of us, girls as well as boys, are out for track.

On April 4, Mr. Roger Ryghs will be here to show the sophomores class rings.

USDS Chorus Visits CHS

by Julie Folkerts

Tuesday, March 18, the chorus from USD Springfield came to perform for us during our second and third period classes. The first half of the concert featured sacred music and the second half, secular. The chorus was directed by Dr. Paul Swanson. A small ensemble also performed several numbers directed by Mr. Warren Erickson.

Parents Visit With Teachers

by Karla Beukelman

Parent-Teachers Conferences were held on Monday, March 24, 1975. The conferences were like last semester's. All the parents had a specific time to come. They were arranged alphabetically. All the teachers were in the gym, to avoid having the parents running from the grade school to the high school, thus saving time. Cookies and coffee were served.

Vocalists Win Superior Ratings

by Randy Dockendorf

Corsica High School, in the rich tradition of its musical past, brought home seven superior ratings from the Region V Contest in Kimball, February 5. This included six of the nine soloists and one group.

Receiving the high honors were: Pam Engelland, Debra Arlt, and Cheryl Beukelman, sopranos; Debra Bartelt, alto; Dave Holstein, tenor; and Roger Plooster, baritone. The Swing Choir, composed of Pam Engelland, Renee Tecklenberg, Debra Arlt, Debra Bartelt, Kathy Kuyper, Sandy Beukelman, Randy Olawsky, Dave Holstein, Roger Plooster, Arend Kuyper, Bob Bamberg, and Alan Herrig, also won the top ranking.

Two soloists and two groups were awarded excellent marks. The girls were Renee Tecklenberg, soprano, and Sandy Beukelman, alto. The girl's ensemble of Pam Engelland, Debra Bartelt, Renee Tecklenberg, Debra Arlt, Julie Folkerts, Cheryl Beukelman, Sandy Beukelman, Kathy Kuyper, and Vera Hoekman joined the Mixed Octet in getting the second place honors. Renee Tecklenberg, Pam Engelland, Debra Bartelt, Sandy Beukelman, Dave Holstein, Randy Olawsky, Arend Kuyper, and Roger Plooster are members of this group.

Tim Engelland, bass, won a good ranking.

Mr. Ralland Bartelt, music instructor, accompanied the songsters to Kimball.

CONGRATULATIONS,
KENT & MIKE

Juniors Top Perfect Attendance

by Julie Folkerts

The junior class led the perfect attendance list for the third quarter. Those juniors with perfect records are: Steve Bamberg, Carol Buck, Bonnie DeBoer, Randy Dockendorf, Curt Braumann, Terry Hall, Doug Plooster, Renee Tecklenburg, Laura Vanden Hoek, and Linda Van Genderen.

Freshmen followed close behind with Jean Bormann, Ivan Brouwer, Londa Groeneweg, Dianne Menning, Barb Peters, Doug Plooster, Harlan Star, Joy Uilenberg, and Paulette Vanden Hoek with perfect attendance.

Two sophomores, Darwin Brouwer, and Teresa Maunders, had perfect attendance and Julie Folkerts of the seniors.

Corsica Competes in Math Contest

by Tami Hamburg

The Merten Hasse Math Contest is to be held on April 12 at Vermillion. This is an All-day affair although the tests are only an hour long.

Those going in division I are Bonnie DeBoer, Deb Groseth, and Randy Dockendorf. From division II, Darwin Brouwer, Delwyn Vreugdenhil, and Donn Bordewyk. The students going from division III are Dave Reimnitz, Vernon Heber, and Londa Bosma.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY,
MR. KRUSE !!!

Math Students Attend CBH Contest

by Tami Hamburg

On April 10 the CBH math contest will be held at Stickney at 1:00. Each group will take a one hour test. The first three places will receive medals and the fourth and fifth will get ribbons.

The people from algebra I that will be going are Elaine Vanden Hoek, Ivan Brouwer and Scott Muckey. The geometry students that will go are Delwyn Vreugdenhil, Darwin Brouwer and Kathy Kuyper. From algebra II, Bonnie De Boer, Randy Olawsky, and Randy Dockendorf are going. Dave Reimnitz, Vernon Heber, and Londa Bosma are the senior math students that are going to fight for the trophies.

Kimball has won this contest for the last two years, and if they win it again this year they get to keep the trophy. But they had better make way cause Corsica is coming through this year.

Platte Students Promote Music Week

by Renee Tecklenburg

Working cowboys, singing Jews, religious rivalrists, rock freakies, and a few other factions of humanity were brought through song and music to CHS on March 13 by Platte High School. The groups which performed included the stage band, sax ensemble, singing groups and swing choir. Almost every type of music from pop to country to religious was touched on.

CHS Presents Pop Concert

by Deb Arlt

It you've heard that CHS was turned into a nightclub you've heard right! On March 18 the CHS music department put on a pop concert. The swing choir and stage band participated under the direction of Mr. Bartelt. The show was emceed by Julie Folkerts and Mick Schrank. Renee Tecklenburg sang two great songs The Way We Were and I Honestly Love You.

The nightclub atmosphere was brought by candlelight and stage decoration. The people were seated at tables and lunch was served throughout the show. The waitresses were Tami Hamburg, Londa Groeneweg, Dianne Menning, Darcy Bartelt, Brenda Peters, Cheryl Beukelman, Diane Bordewyk, and Vera Hoekman. Lunch was furnished by the Music Boosters and the mothers of girls' glee club.

The program started at 8:00 and ended at about 9:30. Admission was $1.00 for adults and 50¢ for students. The songs that were presented from the swing choir were The Entertainer, Yesterday Once More, Top Of the World, Life Is a Song Worth Singing, Lennon-McCartney Medley, My Sweet Lady, and Take Me Home Country Roads. Songs presented by the stage band were February's Child, TSOP, Wired for Sound, Here's That Rainy Day, and Man In Motion.

Good Luck,
Tracksters

ENJOY YOUR VACATION ???

Let's Go To Town

by Gloria Spaans

Have you ever thought about going downtown to do some shopping lately? Well, when you do go downtown are you sure you're not going uptown? What is the difference between going uptown or downtown.

When you live on the south side of town aren't you going uptown and if one lives on the north side isn't he going downtown? Well, then, what about the people on the east and west side of town? Would east be uptown or would west be uptown? Who knows, maybe people on the east and west side don't go uptown. But they both might want to go downtown to do they're shopping.

Now then, there are these people who live in the middle of town, but want to shop on the west side of town. Where would they be going? Up or down?

As for us rural people, it isn't so complicated. Instead of going up or downtown, we make it a lot simpler by saying that we're going "to town" for the same shopping that people in town have to go up or downtown for. Aren't we rural people fortunate?

FMC Raises Money

by Eve Van Dyke

The FMC saw a film this past month on public health nursing. The girls have been making frequent visits to the Pleasant View Home to work as candy strippers.

Among other things, we are planning a candy sale to be held downtown on April 22, beginning at 10:00 A.M.

PROM PROGRESS

by Renee Tecklenburg

On March 20 the senior class nominated the following for prom candidates: Girls- Debbie Eggers, Debbie Aelt, and Linda Van Genderen; and Boys- Keith Weerheim, Randy Dykstra, and Randy Olawsky.

Deb Eggers, junior class president, met with the junior mothers to get committees together and to start working on the banquet.

The various class committees have also been planning the decorating and menu and ordering. Miss Wagner, one of our class advisors, has announced that most of the materials have arrived and are ready to go.

Students Attend Business Contest

by Teresa Maunders

The annual CBH Business Contest will be held at Mitchell, SD on April 9.

The contest consists of four divisions which are: typing I, typing II, bookkeeping, and shorthand. Three students from every school are allowed to participate in each division.

Corsica will have 11 students competing in this contest. They are as follows: Sandy Beukelman, Vera Hoekman, and Kathy Kuyper in Typing I; Randy Dockendorf and Helen Van Dyke for Typing II; Bonnie De Boer, Debbie Groseth, and Randy Olawsky in bookkeeping; and Karla Beukelman, Bev Everson, and Eve Van Dyke will be competing in the shorthand division.

CHS Students Perform At Festival

by Karla Beukelman

On Friday evening, March 21, the Second Annual Music Festival was held in Mitchell at the Corn Palace. Seven schools participated.

First on the program was the band which played: Kilian, Suite Concertante, Morning After, Highlights From Jesus Christ Superstar, and The Drunken Sailor.

In the second half of the program, each school gave a selection or two of their own. Then the mixed chorus sang: Jazz Gloria, Ain't Got Time To Die, and I Am An American which was accompanied by the band.

The band rehearsed in the morning and the chorus practiced in the afternoon. The guest conductor was Dr. Paul Scheurle, the head of the DWU's Music Department.

IMMATURITY

Kids that are mature but act immature can ruin their reputation. In the future if they want to get a job, their reputation of throwing tantrums and being irresponsible goes with them. This might ruin their chance for a good job or for that matter, any job. No one wants a person who shoves things around for dumb reasons working for them.

Hitting and shoving shows great immaturity, so act your age and save hitting for fighting and discipline. Don't do it for fun. You may injure someone for life. Show that you're mature!

GOOD LUCK CONTEST PARTICIPANTS!

Spirit of Six Award Given

by Randy Dockendorf

The tragic ending of one group of cheerleaders has now become a source of pride and honor for two squads each year. Although the guys didn't make it to the top, it was announced that the Cresbard and Rapid City Central cheerleaders won the "Spirit of Six" awards for this year's tournaments.

"Spirit of Six" awards are given each year to the "A" and "B" squad that best shows sportsmanship, enthusiasm, control of crowd, and originality. The award is in memory of six Rapid City cheerleaders who, on their way home from winning the championship, crashed at the airport and were killed. The award is to keep alive the memory of their devotion to the team, and reward the group who best represents the qualities these girls possessed.

KEEP YOUR EYES ON THE ROAD

by Tami Hamburg

Now that winter is gone and spring is here doesn't mean that we can drive carelessly. Sure it means that there isn't any more snow or icy roads to worry about, but accidents can still happen. The weather may be so nice that you don't really feel like driving along, watching only the road. You'd rather be looking out the windows, seeing signs of spring everywhere. But if everyone did this, can you imagine all the accidents that would occur? So let's try to prevent accidents this season by simply paying more attention to the road and not so much to the other attractions around us while we're driving.

Play

After hearing forty tryouts Miss Wagner and Steve selected the following cast to appear in the spring play. Mr. Gilbreth, head of the Gilbreth household-Donn Bordewyk; Mrs. Gilbreth, a firm but loving mother and wife-Julie Folkerts; Anne (17)-Pam Engelland; Ernestine (16)-Linda VanGendren; Martha (15)-Kathy Kuyper; Frank (14)-Brian Stredde; Bill (13)-Jim Reimnitz; Lillian (12)-Jean Bormann; Francine (11)-Carol Buck; Dan (9)-Brian VanGendren; Jackie (8)-Jim Beukelman; Mrs. Fitzgerald, a kindly housekeeper-Bev Everson; Dr. Burton, the Gilbreth's family doctor-Delwyn Vreugdenhil; Joe Scales, the loudmouthed but fired up boy cheerleader-Bob Bamberg; Miss Brill, a battleax teacher who shows a mutual dislike for the children-Sandy Beukelman; and Larry, (someone special),-Darwin Brouwer.

To be successful a production needs capable crew members to run things behind the scenes. This is especially true of "Cheaper by the Dozen", as a large number of crew workers is needed. The following Drama Club members are on crews. Those in parentheses lead their crews.

Student Director: Steve Beukelman; Stage Crew: (Keith Weerheim), Greg Olivier, Tim Engelland, Fred Weerheim, Brian and Forrest Stredde; Sound: Delwyn Vreugdenhil, Darwin Brouwer; Wardrobe-Prompters: Karla Beukelman, Tami Hamburg; Lights: (Al Herrig), Fred Weerheim, Scott Beukelman; Makeup: (Ruth DeVries, Londa Bosma), Deb Arlt, Tami Hamburg, Karla Beukelman, Karen Vreugdenhil, Deb Bartelt, Carol Hubers, Darcy Bartelt, Denise Markus, Brenda Peters; Publicity: Deb Groseth, Bonnie DeBoer, Randy Dockendorf. The audience will be greeted at the door by various actors and actresses in the play.

Although we've said it many times before, it can be said again that this will be another great production for the CHS Drama Club. This play has the ingredients that appeal to all ages. Circle April 10 and 11 on your calendar right now, and plan to take in a great play!

by Carol Hubers

The red-breasted bird searches for a leafy giant,
In which to renew life.
Finding none . . .
She mourns to anyone who will listen.
The notes fall on eager ears . . .
Of those in search of the "Signs of Spring."

The billowing drifts of sparkling crystals,
Have shrunk low to the earth.
Crying cold, silent tears and wishing for renewal
But finding none.
This Sadness is beheld and smiled upon
By those in search of the "Signs of Spring".

Brave flowers awakening from six-month sleep,
Poke timid, cowering heads from beneath last Falls leaves
And search for abundant sunshine and rain . . .
But finding none!
These silent sentinals of spring are hailed with delight
By those in search of the "Signs of Spring".

Seniors Picked By Coaches

by Randy Dockendorf

On Tuesday, March 4, the nine coaches of the CBH conference teams gathered in Mt. Vernon for the task of selecting the 1974-75 All-Conference members. Each Coach cast votes for players outside his team, with the top 12 vote-getters making the honor squad.

When the final ballots were counted, Corsica High, home of the conference champion Comets, had placed two hoopsters on the roster. Representing CHS were seniors Mike Noteboom and Kent Fisher. Both players were important to this season's campaign. Kent contributed 16.4 points and 8 rebounds per game, while Mike averaged 12 points and 10.4 rebounds in each outing.

Also making All-Conference honorable mention for his 13 point and 4.5 rebound addition was Randy Olawsky, a junior.

Comets Fire Up For Track

by Randy Olawsky

The delightful agony of running your guts out is back again. The track season has arrived!

The boys are all madly training for the first track meet at Winner on April 2. The season looks promising for there are 25 tracksters participating this year. Of the 25 tracksters that are out, 14 of them are lettermen (6 seniors, 4 juniors, and 4 sophomores).

Coach Kreitlow's comments on the upcoming season are, "Well, we got the whole team back from last year which makes the season look fantastic. Our strong point should be our relays. If everyone stays free of injury, we can look forward to a great and rewarding season."

-SPORTS-

The tracksters will be able to prove themselves on many occasions this year. They will be participating in 12 trackmeets this spring which include the State Track Meet in Huron.

Girls Look Forward To Track Season

by Tami Hamburg

With spring comes many things, including girls track. With girls track comes many things also, including those hideous sweat suits, body odor, aching muscles, athletes foot, and worst of all--laughs. The guys seem to find it quite funny to see the girls in the sweat suits running around the gym.

Guys also think it funny that there aren't very many high school girls out this year, but did you ever think why they're not out? Does it occur to you guys that, maybe, they don't like being laughed at? Sure they may look a bit funny, but what did the guys track team look like in its first and second years??

Why don't the guys and gals get together on this thing. It sure would help if the girls had a little encouragement from the guys. Doesn't it help you guys to do your best if you can hear the crowd yelling for you, and not laughing at you? Think about it.

Catholics Capture Crown

by Randy Dockendorf

It was no secret that I supported Dell Rapids St. Mary's and Aberdeen Roncalli during the state 'B' and 'A' this year, but I was surprised to see a Lutheran or two stick by St. Mary's. Even more surprising was some records and the history of these two schools.

Did you know St. Mary's was the first parochial school to even make it to the 'B' in history, while Roncalli was the first church school to win an 'A' championship? It was also the first time two undefeated teams met for the trophy.

This may sound like a long drought, but parochial schools have been allowed in the state tournaments for only about ten years. This wasn't prejudice, but just tradition. There used to be a large number of parochial schools (especially Catholic), and they held their own state tournament each year. Then inflation hit, and the number fell so low that we now have church schools in the 'A' and 'B'.

Although this column suggests Catholic schools, you might remember when our western neighbor, Dakota Christian, almost pulled the trick in 1971, but lost the regional championship to Andes Central. Nevertheless, winning a state championship to runnerup spot, along with O'Gorman and Stevens losing in the sectional finals, made it a very good year for Catholic teams. To which many a Protestant shall add, "Amen!"

ARIES

March 21-April 19

Those born with the sun in this position in the heavens are endowed with strength, vitality, and qualities of leadership. Symbolized by the ram, an animal famous for his ability to force his way ahead against any obstacles, and ruled by Mars, a fiery and courageous god, this is a potent and aggressive sign. The native is independent and venturesome; he goes into any enterprise with enthusiasm and gusto. However, he is impatient of authority, of routine, and easily bored. His energy and initiative will bring success if he can persevere in what he undertakes. Those from CHS born under this sign are:

— Safety Promoted at CHS —

by Tami Hamburg

The week of March 17-21 was set aside by the Safety Council as the annual Safety week. On Monday, Mini posters were placed all around school. The posters had little sayings on them reminding everyone to drive carefully and to observe all safety rules.

On Tuesday, the high school and some of the teachers took a quiz entitled, "Are You an Expert?", to test their knowledge on driving safety. If you are wondering why you got some of the questions wrong, the answers are here.

1. (b) One car-length for each 10 miles per hour. One car-length should compensate for an emergency stop and any advantage in braking distance the car ahead holds over yours.

2. (b) Dry. Dry roads are no guarantee of safety. Speed and careless driving are more dangerous than any road condition.

3. (a) Good. Inclement weather and unfavorable road conditions are in evidence in one out of five fatal accidents.

4. (c) Slow up on approach, then gradually pick up speed. Of course excessive speed increases the danger of upset, sidesway, and skidding.

5. (b) False. The first effect is psychological, in that judgement and inhibition are impaired, which may cause driving errors.

6. (b) False. They only make the person more awake and less intoxicated. Alcohol is burned up at a constant rate and the process cannot be speeded up.

7. (b) Pull over to the curb and rest awhile. Avoid starchy foods, heavy meals and liquids. Drugs, which slow up reaction, are dangerous.

8. (d) Pump the brake pedal gently but firmly, particularly on wet or icy pavement.

9. (d) 40% of the time.

10. (b) 8,000-10,000

11. (b) Apply the brakes gently, or not at all. In case of a blowout, a sudden application of the brakes may cause the car to overturn.

12. (d) Speed, and speed too fast for road, weather and visibility conditions, is the most frequently reported cause of fatal accidents.

13. (d) Steer in the same direction that the rear of the car is sliding. This is true provided oncoming traffic and road conditions permit. Don't put on brakes or depress the clutch. It is better to stall your engine than to allow the car to waltz all over the road. Take your foot off the accelerator.

14. (c) Grip the wheel firmly, take your foot off the accelerator. Allow the engine to reduce speed to a safe point before applying brakes or depressing the clutch or attempting to steer back on the road.

15. (c) Park parallel, crimp wheels to curb and set brake. When parking uphill, set front wheels to left against curb; downhill, set wheels to right. Put transmission in park (manual transmission in first if uphill, reverse if downhill).

16. (b) Signal your intention, then back slowly after making sure roadway is clear. If possible, get a passerby to direct you. Never back your car up unless absolutely necessary.

17. (d) Pull cautiously over to the right and stop.

18. (b) In the garage, on the rubbish pile or hanging from a tree as a swing for the kids. Such a tire is a menace to the driver, his passengers, and everyone on the road.

19. (b) Saving lives. Traffic violations are the major cause of accidents. Obey traffic laws and you'll not only avoid traffic tickets but you'll have a better chance to avoid injury or death.

20. (c) More than 89% of all accidents occur on straight level roads.

21. (a) Left hand at 9 or 10 o'clock, right hand at 2 or 3 o'clock.

Good leverage assures constant control of direction of travel.

22. (a) Stop

(b) Caution

(c) Railroad crossing

(d) Yield

If you got 20-22 right, you are an Expert. 16-19 right, you are Pretty Good. 12-15 right is Fair. 8-11 right is Poor.

On Wednesday at 2:00, Mr. Jim Costello, the new police officer in town, talked to the high school and Jr. high on some of the things he expected from the kids and talked on road and street safety. Then we saw the film "Where have all the people gone". It told of the importance of safety belts and showed some of the results if they weren't used.

On Thursday a film was supposed to be shown to the grade school and on Friday morning, the high school was to see a film, then the guys were to see a film on car modification and the girls were going to learn how to change a tire, but we were unable to get the films on time. These will be held at a later date.

The safety council also put up large posters for safety week.

Out of the high school, 81 people took the quiz. 7% of those who have taken drivers ed. were considered Experts. 89% did Pretty Good, 0% Fair, and 4% did poorly.
