

CORSICA HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS

Band Played

The music for the District 27 Tournaments is provided by the District Band.

Its 44 members are from Platte, Stickney, Plankinton, and Corsica.

Those from Corsica are Sue Strehlow and Doug Bordewyk-corenet; Connie Spaans, Linda Noteboom, Susan Droppers, and Laura Schryvers-clarinet; Allen Hoekman-tenor saxophone.

The various directors direct the band when their school is playing.

Assembly Given

On Tuesday, February 18, the students of Corsica Public School were favored with an assembly program about the Philippines.

The group consisted of a young man and four ladies who entertained the students with songs and recitations in their own language.

The young man showed his native costumes to the audience and told them about some of their native customs.

The ladies were dressed in long dresses which everyone wears in the Philippines.

J-City Chosen

Sandra Bamberg and Alan Zwart have been chosen to Journalism City, Girls State and Boys State respectively. They will be members of the staffs of the "Sacajawea Scroll" and the "Sunshine Scribe".

Sandra is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Bamberg. She is very active in school activities. She is secretary of the junior class and has written the Drivers Ed. column for the C.H.S. Highlights.

Alan Zwart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Zwart, is active in sports, band, and chorus. He is president of the junior class and vice-president of the student council.

Both Sandra and Alan are "B" honor students.

Film "The Last Prom" Shown

"The Last Prom" was shown by Highway Patrolman on Monday, February 17.

The film emphasized the fact that young people should not take driving for granted. They should be alert at all times otherwise they may have to suffer the tragic consequences as was illustrated in the "Last Prom".

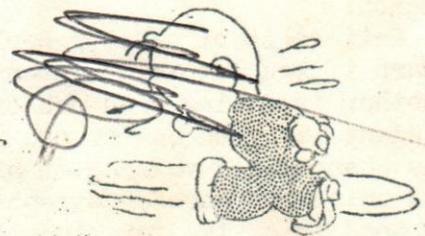

Corsica High would like to thank the Highway Department for their time and effort in showing the film.

Play Presented

The Little Theater Club presented its first play to the public on Tuesday, February 18. The melodrama entitled "Curse You Jack Dalton", included Mrs. Dalton-Sandra Bamberg, Anna-Laura Schryvers, Bertha Blair-Jill Teeselink, Jack Dalton-Harlan Wolbrink, Eloise-Connie Spaans, Richard-Roger Hoekstra, and the villain-Brent Beukelman.

The play was directed by Miss Pagel and Mr. Weins and followed a short musical program which consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Englehorn and Mr. Henthorne.

Due to the weather and the tournaments the audience was small but the drama club has hopes of putting on a bigger and better production later on in the season.

ARE YOU AN EDUCATION DROPOUT?

by Mr. Englehorn

What's it all worth anyway? School, I mean. What's it worth to you? Do you attend because your parents say you have to or because all the kids go--- or because you want to?

Maybe you aren't one of these who will eventually become a school drop-out, but just what are you getting out of school? Are you there to learn or just to spend time until school is out? Just being in school doesn't necessarily give you an education. You have to work at it a little.

"What's the use?" you might ask. Maybe you aren't going to be an English teacher but you aren't going to stop talking when you graduate, are you? You may not be directly using the other subjects you take either, but they all help. They help you learn a little about the world around you. They help you learn how to think and reason.

Believe it or not, school was designed to help you learn if you let it. Listening in class is one way and another is making good use of your study halls. Every student is given one or two study halls a day to give him the chance to have some of his homework done in school, and unless you are an exceptionally brilliant student, you do need this time for studying.

Did you ever stop to think what if you do your studying during school that you wouldn't have as much of it to do at night. If you're the person who doesn't study at night either, you are probably on the failing list, so more than ever, you need the time in school to work.

It is difficult to get much studying done when you are running all over the school building instead of staying in study hall. Ask yourself sometime, "Is your excuse for getting out of study hall really important?" If it is, couldn't it be done sooner so you can get back to study hall and study?

On the school scene Sheryl states Human Anatomy as her favorite subject. It seems she just can't decide on her favorite teacher. Her opinion of school is "It's improving and the kids are a really great bunch of kids."

Sheryl's pet peeve is people who are one kind and they act like something completely different.

Her future plans are to attend Vocational Tech. School in Mitchell.

Maybe you should just ask yourself whom you are hurting by not studying. The teacher? Your parents? Your friends? Or yourself? I'm sure you know the answer.

You've probably heard that it's hard to get a job if you don't finish high school. After you graduate it's too late to wish you had studied. So do yourself a favor and study now.

DON'T BE AN EDUCATION DROPOUT!

COMETS FALL TO PLATTE PANTHERS

In the semi-finals of the District 27 tournament at Wagner Feb. 19 the Comets got beat by Platte 53-48 in a real battle. The Comets who were plagued by fouls outshot the Panthers from the field but lost it at the free throw line. The Comets also lost starters, Ron Vandenberg, via the foul route, Brent Beukelman, Harlan Wolbrink and Rocky Maunders also fouled out.

For Corsica, Jay DeWaard was the only one who could crack the tough man to man Panther defense, as he got 24 points. He also turned in a lot of rebounds and a fine defensive game. Rocky and Ronnie had 8 and 9 points respectively with some rebounds also.

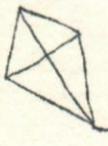

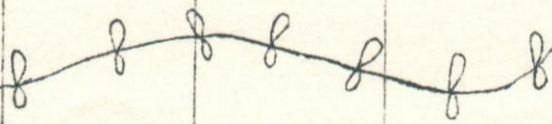

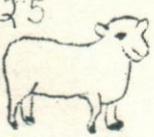

For Platte, Stanforth, DeHean, and Paul were standouts.

VIEWS OF MISS HARRINGTON

Miss Shirley Harrington who is teaching English I and III and Spanish I and II, is a 1964 graduate of Mitchell High School, and a 1967 graduate of Dakota Wesleyan. At DWU she received a major in English, and a minor in speech and Spanish.

She has taught one semester at Reliance Public School, one year at Emery Public School, and one year at Flandreau Indian School.

Her father is retired, and her mother, who is also a teacher, teaches in Mitchell. She also has a sister, Sherry, who is a senior at Mitchell High School. They have a Siamese cat named Charlie, which they wouldn't give away for any amount of money!

Her hobbies are cooking, sewing, reading, working on plays, and playing the piano and organ.

STUDENTS COMPLAIN!!

"Boy those teachers are strict!" This is just one of many gripes heard in the halls of good ole CHS. It seems even though we are only through weeks of school, the students and teachers alike have many things they dislike.

"Where have our study periods gone in shorthand and psychology?" This is one gripe heard from some of the senior girls.

"This is a school, not a reformatory", is a saying heard by many who have been sent to their home rooms before school. Some students have mentioned that they would like to see the school lunch menu posted for the week, so that they would know what to expect when dinner time rolls around.

BIRTHDAYS CELEBRATED

There were many students having birthdays over the summer months. Those having birthdays in June are as follows: Tom Eggers, Donna Sprecher, Cynthia Arlt, Mary Hoekman, Brent De Boer, Kevin Gardeman, Sherry Reimnitz. Gordon Heber

Those whose birthdays were celebrated in July were Joan Johnson, Jerry Star, Roy Beukelman, Avis Denning, and Cheryle Lichtenberg.

Those birthdays celebrated in August were: Brent Brumbaugh, Michael Buck, Shirley Bultji, Judy Ommen, Dorothy Spaans, Nelson Vanden Hoek, Daryl Jongsma, Nancy Noteboom, Rod Schrank, Judy Teunisen, Margie Van Zee, Ivan Graumann, Joe Maunders, Wayne Van Boekel, Dirk Van Vuuren and Bonnie Kennedy.

2. Don't run to class! People may get the idea you're ambitious.

3. Don't keep quiet all the time people may think you're dumb! Do keep quiet some of the time or they'll know you are.

4. Don't run up the stairs! Wouldn't your face be red if you'd slip!

5. For people who like to sweep! Do eat Russian Peanuts.

6. Don't shoot paper wads! One is sure to go astray and hit the teacher.

7. Do throw away candy wrappers! Some of the teachers don't approve of "Study Hall Lunching!"

OBEEDIENCE IS DESIRED!

DRIVERS ED CORNER

"Grant me a steady hand, and watchful eye,
That no man shall be hurt when I pass by.
Thou gavest life, and pray no act of mine
May take away or mar that gift of thine.

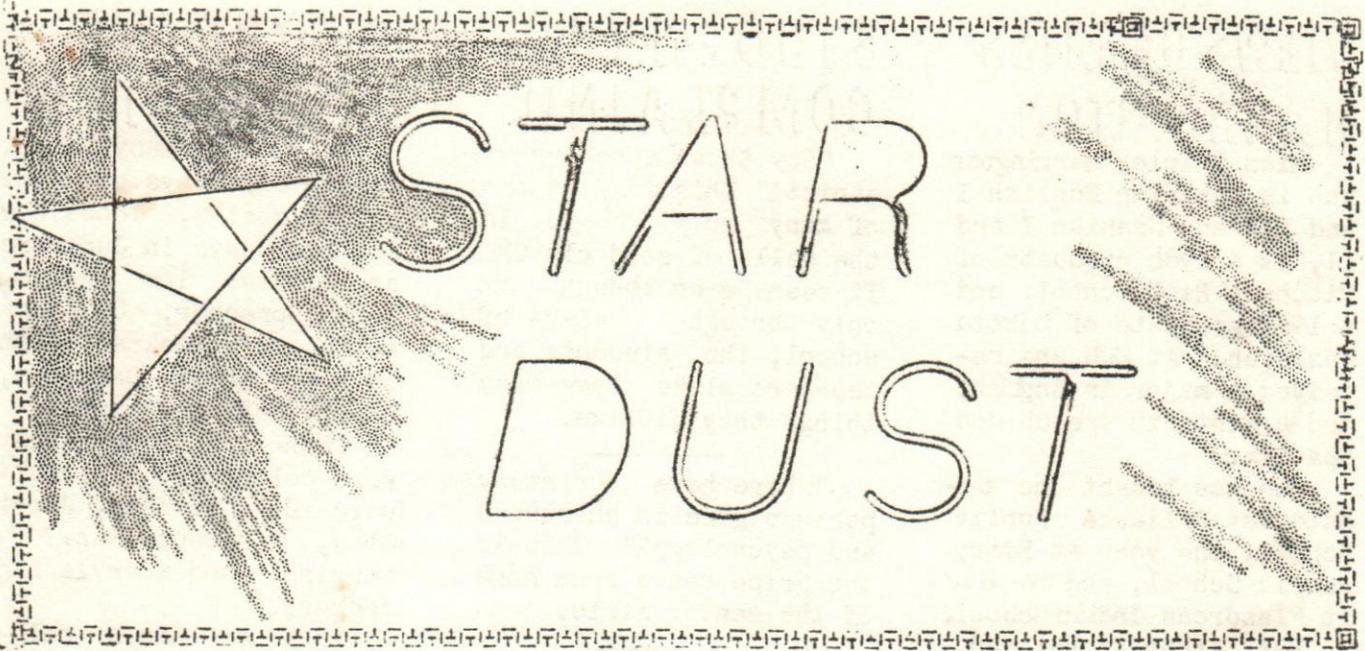

Shelter those, dear Lord, who bear me company
From the evils of fire and all calamity.

Teach me to use my car for others' need,
Nor mill through love of speed
The beauty of Thy world; that thus I may
With joy and courtesy go my way."

Since all Freshman are not thoroughly acquainted with the rules and regulations of the school, we would like to publish this article in their behalf. Here are a few do's and don't's. (Cont'd next col.)

1. When chewing bubble gum, Do look to see if the teacher is watching before blowing a bubble big enough to cover the face. They can tell the difference between the two you know!

The Declam and Little Theatre Clubs have been very busy lately getting ready for fall happenings. The district declam contest will be held at Tripp on October 28 at 9 a.m. This means our local elimination contest will be around the first part of October.

The Drama Club was organized the end of August with Miss Harrington in charge. There were 39 members in attendance, but we urge anyone who is interested in joining to do so immediately. For the first meeting, plans for the new year were discussed and the following were chosen as officers: president, Connie Spaans; vice-president, Linda Noteboom; sec.treas., Kay Klein; and student council member, Ralph Starckenburg.

We still urge anyone interested in plays to join the Little Theatre Club as soon as possible. We've got a lot planned and we need all the help we can get. Remember, if you don't like to act, there are scores of things to do. You could be directors, costume designers, property committees, lighting crews, scenery committees, prompters, curtain pullers, publicity committees, etc. The dues are $1.00 and you pay them to Kay Klein or another officer of the club.
